

National Manufacturing Debate

21 May 2019

Rosa Wilkinson
Director of Communications

Formerly Director of Stakeholder Engagement at the Department for International Trade, Rosa Wilkinson joined the High Value Manufacturing Catapult in September 2017 to lead the Catapult's communications and Government affairs activity.

Previous roles have included Director of Innovation and Strategic Communication at the Intellectual Property Office and as Director of Public Policy for Lloyds TSB. Her earlier career includes a variety of Whitehall policy roles including as Managing Director of the Government's Small Business Service and Director of Manufacturing at the then Department for Trade and Industry.

Rosa is a Non-Executive Board member of the Manufacturing Technologies Association.