

Welcome to your Alumni Library Online

Say hello to lifelong learning and free access to the latest thinking.

Lifelong learning to support your personal and professional development

As a member of the Cranfield alumni community, you're entitled to free lifelong access to one of the UK's leading university library services for alumni.

The Alumni Library Online gives you instant access to thousands of top-quality journal articles and the latest thinking to support your professional and personal development.

"I certainly will make good use of the lifelong membership, because I love to learn and to grow and the Cranfield library offers just that."

Martin Weber (MSc Design of Rotating Machines 2014)

Your Alumni Library Online gives you:

- Free access to a wide range of top-quality subscription databases which have been specifically licensed for the benefit of our alumni.
- Thousands of free full-text articles, reports and theses through premium open access online resources.
- Links to subject-specific resources - a collection of links to free, high quality websites selected by our information specialists to support your personal development.
- Mendeley - a free library reference-building and storage tool.
- Access to CERES and CORD – Cranfield's research repositories of articles, papers and research data.
- Online support for conducting your own research via SAGE Research Methods Online.

Stay on the pulse with the latest thinking and research

With your Alumni Library Online you can:

- Access information to help you search for jobs.
- Prepare for interviews by accessing company information.
- Keep up-to-date on the latest thinking and research in your field or industry.
- Stay on the pulse and learn about current trends and new research areas.
- Develop your employability skills.
- Seek advice on conducting your own research.
- Access some of the technical sources you used during your studies.

...and it's free to access – for the rest of your life!
