

Student charter

Supporting you to achieve your potential

This charter details the partnership between Cranfield, our students and the Cranfield Students' Association. It sets out how we work together to enable you to get the most out of your Cranfield experience and to be an active member of our diverse and global community of staff, students, alumni and business partners.

Supporting you to achieve your potential is at the heart of our commitment to you. We encourage you to embrace and cherish our values:

Ambition – We aim high. We do all we can to achieve excellence.

Impact – We change people's lives. We make the world a better place.

Respect – We value everyone's expertise. We support each other.

Community – We build and cherish our Cranfield community. We embrace diversity.

Our commitment to you

- We prioritise your health and safety and work hard to support your wellbeing and mental health.
- We foster an inclusive, supportive and welcoming culture, with opportunities for you to meet people across the whole University during and after your studies.
- We provide you with a unique learning environment and outstanding opportunities to develop and enhance your career.
- We communicate, listen and engage with you on a regular basis, as part of the 'Cranfield Student Voice'.
- We aim to provide a sustainable environment in which to live and work and invite you to play your part in creating and protecting this.

Your commitment to us

- You play an active role in ensuring the health, safety and wellbeing of yourself and others.
- You actively participate in your studies and embrace the Cranfield experience, respecting everybody in our diverse, international community.
- You engage with the 'Cranfield Student Voice', and tell us about your Cranfield experience.
- You welcome feedback as an essential part of a positive learning experience and pro-actively advance and drive new ideas and innovation.

Your Student Association's commitment to you

- The Cranfield Student Association (CSA) is a professional body that will actively engage with you and support your needs.
- They contribute to a positive, healthy and sustainable environment to support your wellbeing.
- They are an independent voice, catering for and representing your needs as part of a diverse student population.
- They provide you with relevant opportunities and events to enhance your Cranfield experience.
