

Early Career Women in Water Conference 2021

Monday 8 March 2021, Virtual event

09:15-09:30 Welcome speech

09:30-10:00 Keynote - Professor Elise Cartmell, Chief Scientist at Scottish Water

10:00-10:30 Presentations

10:00 - From geomorphology to archaeology: disentangling river changes over different timescales, Kim Vercruysse

10:15 - Exploring approaches to adaptive pathways applied in flooding and coastal erosion risk management, Leonie Constantine

10:30-10:45 Break

10:45 -11:45 Presentations

10:45 - Delving into the future of drinking water: Chemical free drinking water treatment and distribution experimentations, Natalie Lamb

11:00 - Transforming slow sand filtration for drinking water supply, Tolulope Elemo

11:15 - Rooting out resilience, Elizabeth Lawson

11:30 - The route map to net-zero carbon emissions for the UK water sector by 2030, Ellie Russell

11:45-12:30 Break

12:30-13:00 Keynote - Lila Thompson, CEO of British Water

13:00-13:45 Presentations

13:00 - Keeping your head above water! Jo Cullen, Environment Agency and Welsh Water

13:15 - More than just a Technical Analyst – a Yorkshire Water perspective, Anne Newton

13:30 - Women's leadership in WASH: do we understand the barriers in developing countries? Ameerah Anathallee

13:45-14:00 Break

14:00-14:30 Panel discussion: Chair - Professor Ana Soares, Cranfield University

- Lila Thompson, British Water
- Professor Elise Cartmell, Scottish Water
- Professor Raffaella Villa, De Montfort University, Leicester
- Professor Bruce Jefferson, Cranfield University

14:30-14:45 Best poster and presentation awards and closing session

Supported by artesia

wood.

envireau
WATER

 EBNet
Environmental Biotechnology