

Home sweet home?

The dark side of repatriating to your home country after working abroad

Ruta Savickaite

Research Analyst/Lecturer, Civitta/Vilnius University

Ruta Savickaite has completed a research master's degree in Behavioral and Social Sciences (Sociology specialization) at the University of Groningen. After studies, she continued working as a researcher at the University of Groningen and in total has spent nine years in the Netherlands. After moving back to her home country Lithuania, Ruta had to make some career changes and now works as a Research Analyst in Civitta and a part-time Lecturer at Vilnius University.