THE BUSINESS PERFORMANCE ROUNDTABLE (BPR) IS:

- A network of executives with a shared desire to improve their organisations' business performance measurement and management practices
- A forum where members challenge, discuss, and learn from each other
- A stimulating learning environment where both academic and practice based knowledge is disseminated and the learning experience is shared

BPR COMPANIES

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Member quarterly meetings
- Participation in research projects
- Networking opportunities with like minded executives
- Access to latest ideas and practices
- Access to Cranfield faculty publications
- News and updates on latest thinking
- Guest speakers and workshops
- Online portal and knowledgebase
- Preferential rates for in-company training, in-company research projects and consulting

MEMBERS OF THE BPR

- Discuss best practices in performance measurement/management
- See examples of how performance measurement initiatives are done in different organisational settings
- Participate in leading research projects
- Meet fellow practitioners
- Engage with UK’s leading academics in the field

BPR Members also enjoy:

CORPORATE DISCOUNTS
Across Cranfield School of Management Executive Development Programmes:
- 25% off ALL Specialist Open Programme tuition fees
- Applies to ALL employees within a research club member organisation
- Please quote code CDW125 when booking to ensure the discount is applied.

Corporate discounts across Cranfield School of Management Executive MSc programmes
- 10% off ALL Executive MSc Programmes tuition fees for 1 individual
- 15% off ALL Executive MSc Programmes tuition fees for 2 or more individuals
  Applies to ALL employees within a research club member organisation

“The world’s leading partnership of academia and industry in the areas of performance measurement and management.”
Maria Rey, Senior Advisor, Newton Vaureal & Co.

“I find the meetings very useful. It is good to hear that other organisations have the same challenges as ours and that there are a variety of solutions”
Mr. Geoff Thomas, Group Financial Planning Manager at Shell International
BPR MEETING TOPICS

- The BPR focuses its attention on how organisations can use performance measurement and performance data to deliver insights, improve decision making and improve overall results.

The following are examples of topics discussed at our quarterly meetings:

- “Deriving Real Value From The Performance Measurement System” Tony Korycki, BT
- “Reflections on Best Practice in Planning and Budgeting Systems” Phil Berrington, Associate Partner, IBM Business Consulting Services
- “Performance measurement: What can businesses learn from sports” Dr. Jenny Denyer, Lane4
- “Managing Change and Performance Improvement” Ken Lewis OBE, Director of Dutton Engineering
- “The way that Intangibles Drive Corporate Performance at Shell International” Geoff Thomas, Shell International
- “The Great Myths of Measurement” Professor Andy Neely, Centre for Business Performance
- “The Power of the Story” Tim Sheppard, Storyteller
- “Extracting value from data: how the detective mind works” Mr. J. Tolson, Ministry of Defence
- “Winning Cases with Data - Gathering data & interpreting events, lessons from the Legal profession” Sean Jones, Barrister
- “Information Visualisation” Prof. Robert Spence, Imperial College
- “Actuary’s approach to data analysis” Richard Abramson, Actuary, Watson Wyatt

HOW THE BPR WORKS

ANNUAL FEE

There is an annual membership fee of £3000 + VAT which entitles member firms to 2 places at each quarterly meeting.

NON-COMPETITIVE ENVIRONMENT

The BPR operates on a non-competitive basis (we will not knowingly accept an application for membership from a competitor of any existing BPR member without his permission). This enables BPR members to meet and share best practices in an open atmosphere.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS

Quarterly meetings are key for the functioning of the roundtable. They are devoted to groundbreaking research and best practice applications. These meetings are usually hosted by one of the member organisations or by Cranfield School of Management. They are one to two days in length.

Dates for 2016:

- 27 April
- 14 July
- 25 November

For more information contact Prof Mike Bourne or Ben Hamilton
Centre for Business Performance, Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield, Bedfordshire, MK43 0AL. Tel: +44 (0)1234 751122
E-mail: m.bourne@cranfield.ac.uk or b.hamilton@cranfield.ac.uk